

FRIDAY GARDEN PROGRAMS

Outside at the Gazebo Free – Everyone Invited

11 am : Pioneer Picks by Phoebe Lake

Phoebe Lake, a 10-year HSA Pioneer Unit member, will showcase 10 plants from the plant sale. She owns New Leaf Nursery near Brenham where she and her husband practice organic methods. Their main emphasis is on growing top-quality herbs, salvias and other perennials. In addition, they provide a wide range of vegetable transplants, including over 60 tomato varieties, specialty peppers, and other less common vegetables. Phoebe also manages the Galilee Garden in Brenham and volunteers at the John Fairey Garden in Hempstead.

Noon: Native Plant Picks by Alyssa Harmon

Alyssa Harmon, native plant grower and the owner of Sycamore Hill Nursery in Brenham, will showcase 5 natives for sun and 5 natives for shade. She grows flowering perennials and grasses native to Texas from locally sourced seeds, focusing on plants that are well-adapted to home landscapes. With a background in landscape architecture, Alyssa enjoys helping gardeners choose native plants that are both beautiful and resilient, supporting pollinators while fitting naturally into everyday gardens.
